

Exhibit 1

SUMMARY

The attorneys at Migliaccio & Rathod LLP (“M&R”) have decades of experience in complex civil litigation and have successfully prosecuted a number of noteworthy consumer protection, data breach and privacy, civil rights, and wage theft cases. The firm’s attorneys, located in Washington D.C. and San Francisco, focus primarily on class or collective actions and take all of their cases on a contingent basis. The attorneys at the firm have litigated cases leading to recoveries of hundreds of millions of dollars for consumers, workers, and other victims of corporate misconduct. M&R has a track record of investing the time, energy, and resources necessary to develop cases which implicate significant economic, societal, privacy, and health concerns.

NOTABLE MATTERS AND SUCCESSES

- In re: Philips Recalled CPAP, Bi-Level Pap, and Mechanical Ventilator Products Litigation, MDL No. 3014 (W.D. Pa.). Represent plaintiffs in MDL. M&R attorney one of 12 appointed to Plaintiff Steering Committee and co-chairs the Science and Experts Committee as well as chairs the Class Action and Experts Subcommittee. The class action track settled for a $479 million common fund (final approval granted), the medical monitoring track settled for $25 million (approval pending), and personal injury claims settled for over $1 billion.
- In Re: Kia Hyundai Vehicle Theft Litigation, No. 8:22-ml-03052-JVS-KES (C.D. Cal.). Represent plaintiffs in MDL concerning a security vulnerability in millions of vehicles manufactured by Hyundai and Kia that made them susceptible to theft. A non-reversionary common fund settlement totaling $80-$145 million is pending final approval and the litigation resulted in a software update being provided to class members to address the underlying security vulnerability.
- Valsartan N-Nitrosodimethylamine (NDMA) Products Liability Litigation, MDL Case No: 1:19-md-02875-RBK-JS (D.N.J.). Represent plaintiffs in multi-district litigation arising from worldwide recalls of generic Valsartan that had been found to be contaminated with probable human carcinogens. M&R was appointed to the Plaintiffs’ Steering Committee and serves as co-chair of the medical monitoring committee. The court granted class certification for medical monitoring for several states and appointed M&R attorney as one of two class counsel.
- Young v. Nationwide Mut. Ins. Co., 693 F.3d 532, 535 (6th Cir. 2012). Represented classes of insureds against several major insurance companies for the failure to use technological advances in verifying the addresses of insureds, leading to overcharges. The Sixth Circuit opinion was foundational for a relaxed standard for ascertainability in that circuit. Litigation culminated in several multi-million dollar settlements.
- Limbaugh, et al. v. Norwood Clinic, Inc., No. 01-cv-2022900085 (Ala. Cir. Ct.). M&R was appointed settlement class counsel in settlement for nationwide class of patients whose private information was exposed. Relief included a $2.3 million non-reversionary common fund.

- In re Wright & Filippis, LLC Data Security Breach Litigation, Case No. 2:22-cv-12908-SFC-EAS (E.D. Mich.). M&R was appointed settlement class counsel in settlement for nationwide class of consumers whose private information was exposed. Relief includes a $2.9 million non-reversionary common fund.
- Carmack v. Snap-On Inc., 2:22-cv-695 (E.D. Wis.). M&R was appointed sole settlement class counsel in settlement for nationwide class of employees whose information was compromised in a data breach. The settlement provided for reimbursement of certain categories of losses as well as enhancement of cybersecurity practices.
- McHenry v. Advent Health Partners, Inc., 3:22-cv-00287 (M.D. Tenn.). M&R was settlement class counsel in settlement for nationwide class of patients whose private information was exposed in a cyberattack. The settlement provided for reimbursement of certain categories of losses as well as enhancement of cybersecurity practices.
- Hoover et al. v. Camping World Group, LLC et al., Civil Action No. 2023LA000372 (Il. Cir. Ct.). M&R was appointed settlement class counsel in settlement for nationwide class of consumers whose private information was exposed. Relief includes a $650,000 non-reversionary common fund.
- Bickham v. Reprosourse Fertility Diagnostics, Inc., No. 1:21-CV-11879-GAO (D. Mass.). M&R was appointed settlement class counsel in settlement for nationwide class of patients whose private information was exposed. Relief includes a $1.25 million non-reversionary common fund.
- Williams v. Monarch, No. 2023-CVS-105 (N.C. Bus. Ct.). M&R was appointed settlement class counsel in settlement for nationwide class of patients whose private information was exposed. Relief includes a $1.1 million non-reversionary common fund.
- Weisenberger v. Ameritas Mutual Holding Co., No. 4:21-cv-03156 (D. Neb.). M&R was appointed sole settlement class counsel in settlement for nationwide class of insureds whose private information was exposed. The settlement provided for reimbursement of certain categories of losses, extended credit monitoring, and enhancement of cybersecurity practices.
- Carlotti v. ASUS Computer International, et al., No. 18-cv-00369 (N.D. Cal.). Represented plaintiffs in a class action suit brought on behalf of purchasers of ASUS Rog Strix GL502VS or GL502VSK laptops with defective batteries or which overheat due to their insufficient cooling system. Benefits of the resulting settlement include cash payment of up to $110 or credit certificate of up to $210 for any impacted individual. Settlement valued at $16 million.
- Brown et al. v. Hyundai Motor America, et ano., Case. No. 2:18-cv-11249 (D.N.J.) M&R was appointed co-lead class counsel in an action brought arising from Hyundai's alleged manufacture, design, marketing and sale of vehicles with a piston-slap defect. The case settled on a class-action basis, and class members were provided with an extended warranty, and reimbursement of expenses.

- In re National Security Agency Telecommunications Records Litigation, Case No. 3:06-md-01791 (N.D. Cal.). Represented Sprint subscribers in privacy suit against telecom companies to enjoin the alleged disclosure to the National Security Agency of telephone calling records. Appointed, with co-counsel, interim lead counsel for the Sprint subscriber class in the MDL proceedings. The litigation was ultimately dismissed after Congress granted retroactive immunity to the telecom companies.
- Wheeler et al. v. Lenovo (United States) Inc., Case No. 13-0007150 (D.C. Sup. Ct.) and Kacsuta v. Lenovo (United States), Inc., Case No. 13-00316 (C.D. Cal.). Represented plaintiffs in a class action brought on behalf of purchasers of Lenovo laptops that suffered from Wi-Fi connectivity problems. Served among the Court-appointed class counsel in a nationwide settlement where Lenovo agreed to refund $100 cash or issue a $250 voucher (which required no purchase to use) to owners of the laptops.
- Fath et al. v. Honda North America, Inc., Case No. 0:18-cv-01549 (D. Minn.). M&R served on the Plaintiff Steering Committee in this nationwide action arising from Honda's alleged manufacture, design, marketing and sale of vehicles with a fuel dilution defect. The case settled on a class action basis, and class members were provided with an extended warranty, reimbursement of expenses, and a product update where applicable.
- Washington v. Navy Federal Credit Union, Case No. 2019 CA 005735 B (D.C. Super. Ct.). Represented a settlement class of individuals whose rights were allegedly violated by Navy Federal Credit Union when they had their vehicles repossessed. The court granted approval of the $800,000 common fund class action settlement in the Fall of 2020. Each class member received no less than $748.12.
- Hill v. County of Montgomery et al.: Case No.: 9:14-cv-00933 (N.D.N.Y.). M&R served as co-lead counsel in this conditions of confinement civil rights class action for the alleged provision of insufficient sustenance in the Montgomery County Jail in upstate New York. After years of litigation, the case settled on a class action basis for $1,000,000, providing significant relief to the class of inmates and detainees.
- Vasquez et al. v. Libre by Nexus, Inc. et al.: Case No. 4:17-cv-00755 (N.D.Cal.). Represented migrants released from detention who allegedly suffered from unfair and deceptive practices – including having to wear an ankle monitor – by the middleman that arranged for bond to be posted. A nationwide class action settlement has been granted final approval.
- In re: JUUL Labs, Inc. Products Litigation, Case No. 3:18-cv-02499 (N.D. Cal.) M&R was appointed as co-lead interim class counsel prior to formation of an MDL in action brought on behalf of a nationwide class arising from marketing and sale of electronic cigarettes by JUUL, the world's largest e-cigarette manufacturer. M&R wrote key aspects of the motion to dismiss briefing, which was later relied on in MDL opinions. In the MDL, M&R assisted with class representative discovery.

- Adeli v. Silverstar Automotive, Inc., Case No. 5:17-cv-05224 (W.D. Ark.). M&R was co-lead trial counsel in this individual consumer fraud suit for economic losses that resulted in a trial verdict of over $5.8 million, the vast majority of which was in punitive damages (judgment later reduced to $533,622, inclusive of a reduced but sizable punitive damages amount, which was affirmed by the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals).
- Bendetowies et al. v. Facebook, Inc.: Case No. 1:18-cv-06263 (N.D.Cal.). Represented consumers in a class action against Facebook for its failure to exercise reasonable care in securing and safeguarding its account holders' Private Information. Plaintiffs alleged that Facebook's security failures exposed Plaintiffs' and Class members' Private Information to a massive security breach affecting approximately 50 million Facebook users. The failures put Plaintiffs' and Class members' personal and financial information and interests at serious, immediate, and ongoing risk.
- Sonya O. Carr v. Transit Employee Federal Credit Union: Case No. 19-cv-005735 (D.C. Super. Ct.). Represented a settlement class of individuals whose rights were allegedly violated by Transit Employee Federal Credit Union when they had their vehicles repossessed. The court granted approval of a $215,000 common fund class action settlement. Each class member received no less than $1,000.
- Matthews v. TCL Communications et al., Case No. 3:17-cv-95 (W.D.N.C.). Represented plaintiffs in a class action brought on behalf of purchasers of Alcatel OneTouch Idol 3 smartphones who alleged that a firmware update removed Band 12 LTE functionality from their phones, greatly reducing their functionality. Served as Court-appointed class counsel in a class action settlement which provided class members with either the reinstatement of Band 12 LTE functionality on their phones, or new phones with LTE Band 12 functionality.
- Snodgrass v. Bob Evans, Case No. 2:12-cv-768 (S.D. Ohio). Represented Bob Evans' Assistant Managers in a case alleging that Bob Evans, a restaurant chain with hundreds of locations predominantly in the Midwest, had misclassified its Assistant Managers as exempt from federal and state overtime laws. After a landmark ruling on the application of the so-called "fluctuating workweek" method of payment, the lawsuit settled for $16.5 million. The gross recovery per class member was approximately $6,380. In issuing its order approving the settlement, the court took special note of the "competence of class counsel in prosecuting this complex litigation."
- Corbin v. CFRA, LLC, Case No. 1:15-cv-00405 (M.D.N.C.). Represented 1,520 servers in collective action against major IHOP franchise for wage theft violations, culminating in $1.725 million settlement.

- Craig v. Rite Aid, Case No. 4:08-CV-2317 (M.D. Pa.). Represented Rite Aid Assistant Managers in a case alleging that Rite Aid had misclassified its Assistant Managers as exempt from federal and state overtime laws. Plaintiffs alleged that their primary duties involved manual labor such as loading and unloading boxes, stocking shelves, cashiering and other duties which are not exempt under federal and state overtime laws. After extensive litigation, the case settled for $20.9 million, covering over 1,900 current and former assistant store managers. In issuing its order approving the settlement, the court stated that the settlement “represents an excellent and optimal settlement award for the Class Members” resulting from “diligent, exhaustive, and well-informed negotiations.”
- Peppler, et al. v. Postmates, Inc., Case No. 2015 CA 006560 (D.C. Sup. Ct.) and Singer, et al. v. Postmates, Inc., 4:15-cv-01284-JSW (N.D. Cal.). Represented plaintiffs in a wage theft class action against application-based courier startup company, alleging that the couriers were misclassified as independent contractors. M&R was named class counsel in the settlement agreement providing for $8.75 million in relief to a nationwide class.
- Bland v. Calfrac Well Services, Case No. 2:12-cv-01407 (W.D. Pa.). Represented oil field workers in a nationwide collective and class action lawsuit against Defendant Calfrac Well Services for its alleged failure to properly pay overtime to its field operators. After extensive litigation, the case settled for $6 million, which provided a gross recovery per class member of between $250 and approximately $11,500.
- Nelson v. Sabre Companies LLC, Case No. 1:15-cv-0314 (N.D.N.Y.). M&R was lead counsel in this nationwide collective action that settled for $2.1 million on behalf of oil and gas workers for unpaid overtime.
- Beture v. Samsung Electronics America, Case No. 17-cv-05757 (D.N.J.). M&R was appointed as co-lead interim class counsel in action brought on behalf of a nationwide class arising from a hardware defect affecting hundreds of thousands of Samsung Galaxy Note 4 smartphones.
- McFadden et al. v. Microsoft Corporation, Case No. 2:20-cv-00640 (W.D. Wash.) M&R was appointed as co-lead interim class counsel in an action brought on behalf of a nationwide class arising from a hardware defect affecting Microsoft X-Box video game controllers.
- Restaino et al. v. Mario Badescu, Inc., Case No. MID-L-5830-14 (N.J. Super. Ct.). Represented 36 individuals who had become physically addicted to undisclosed corticosteroids in a purportedly botanical face cream, and sought damages for personal injuries arising from the symptoms of topical steroid withdrawal. After three years of litigation, the case settled for significant relief to the plaintiffs.
- Walsh et al. v. Globalstar, Inc., Case No. 3:07-cv-01941 (N.D. Cal.), represented Globalstar satellite telephone service customers who brought claims that Globalstar knew that it was experiencing failures in its satellite constellation and its satellite service was rapidly deteriorating and was no longer useful for its intended purpose, yet failed to disclose this information to its potential and existing customers. Served as Court-appointed class counsel in a nationwide settlement that provided an assortment of benefit options, including, but not limited to, monetary account credits, free minutes, or cash back for returned equipment.

- Delandro v. County of Allegheny, Case No. 06-927 (W.D. Pa.). Represented pre-trial detainees who were subjected to unlawful strip searches prior to their admission at Allegheny County Jail, located in Pittsburgh, PA. After winning class certification, partial summary judgment on liability, and an injunction, the case settled for $3 million.
- Nnadili v. Chevron, Case No. 02-1620 (D.D.C.). Represented owners and residents of properties in the District of Columbia that were contaminated with gasoline constituents from leaking underground storage tanks that were installed by Chevron. The plaintiffs, who resided in over 200 properties in the Riggs Park neighborhood of Northeast Washington, D.C., alleged that Chevron's contamination interfered with the use and enjoyment of their property, impacted their property values, constituted a trespass on their land, and caused fear and emotional distress. The United States Environmental Protection Agency conducted an extensive investigation into the contamination. After approximately five years of litigation, the case settled for $6.2 million.
- Ousmane v. City of New York, Case No. 402648/04 (NY Sup. Ct.). Represented New York City Street vendors in a pro bono class action suit against the City of New York for excessive fines and helped secure a settlement with a value of over $1 million.
- Stillman v. Staples, Case No. 07-849 (D.N.J.). Represented Staples Assistant Managers in Fair Labor Standards Act Claims for unpaid overtime. Served as a member of the trial team where the plaintiffs won a nearly $2.5 million verdict against Staples for unpaid overtime on behalf of 342 sales managers after a six-week jury trial. After the verdict, nearly a dozen wage and hour cases against Staples from across the country were consolidated in a multi-district litigation. Served in a central role in the consolidated litigation, which lasted nearly two years after the Stillman verdict. The consolidated litigation ultimately settled for $42 million.

Jason S. Rathod

Jason S. Rathod is a founding partner of Migliaccio & Rathod LLP and an accomplished plaintiff-side class action lawyer, particularly in the areas of consumer protection, defective products, and data privacy. Mr. Rathod has been appointed to leadership teams in some of the most high-profile cases in the country. In In Re: Philips Recalled CPAP, Bi-Level Pap, and Mechanical Ventilator Products Litigation, he was among a small group of lawyers appointed to the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee and served as the co-chair of the Science and Experts Committee. The case resulted in class action settlements for economic loss (settlement approved) and medical monitoring (approval pending), as well as personal injury claims totaling approximately $1.7 billion. He was also appointed to serve on a three-person experts committee in the In Re: Kia Hyundai Vehicle Theft MDL in which a classwide settlement valued at approximately $200 million has been reached (final approval pending). Mr. Rathod has been quoted in the national press, including in The Wall Street Journal and Washington Post. In addition to his consumer protection work, Mr. Rathod also prosecutes wage theft, civil rights, and environmental protection cases.

Mr. Rathod has been recognized as a leader in his field beyond the courtroom. He is the author of several published works, including a law review article on aggregate litigation in poor countries. Another recent law review article that he co-authored, comparing public and private enforcement in the United State and Europe, was cited by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau in its proposed rule prohibiting class action waivers in the fine print of consumer contracts.

Mr. Rathod graduated from Grinnell College in 2006 (B.A. with honors in Political Science and Religious Studies). After college, he traveled to Fiji, Mauritius, South Africa, Trinidad & Tobago, Guyana, and Suriname on a Watson Fellowship, studying the Indian Diaspora. He graduated law school from the Duke University School of Law in 2010, where he was an Articles Editor of the Duke Law Journal. In law school, he also worked for one of the largest labor unions in India - the Self-Employed Women's Association - in public interest litigation on behalf of street vendors seeking an injunction against the city of Ahmedabad for unlawful harassment and evictions.

Notable Cases Include:

- Representing consumers and patients in several data privacy class action settlements, including in In re Wright & Filippis, LLC Data Security Breach Litigation, Case No. 2:22-cv-12908-SFC-EAS (E.D. Saran Q. Edwards

Saran Q. Edwards primarily focuses on data privacy cases at M&R, but she also assists in other practice areas. Joining the firm in January 2024, Mrs. Edwards brings with her a diverse legal background and over a decade of civil litigation experience.

Mrs. Edwards graduated magna cum laude with a B.A. in Psychology from Temple University in 2005. She went on to earn her juris doctorate from The University of Arizona, James E. Rogers College of Law in 2011. During her time in law school, she honed her legal skills serving as a judicial extern for the Hon. Raner C. Collins in the U.S District Court, District of Arizona, and as a student attorney with the City of Tucson's Prosecutor's Office.

Prior to joining M&R, Mrs. Edwards focused on parent-side special education matters in New Jersey, advocating for children with disabilities in public schools. Additionally, she participated in a pending class action lawsuit against the New Jersey Department of Education, pertaining to alleged violations of the Individuals with Disabilities in Education Act ("IDEA"). Mrs. Edwards also litigated open public records act ("OPRA") cases, and prosecuted discrimination claims in federal and state courts.

Mrs. Edwards began her legal career in Texas, where she concentrated on civil rights litigation, including wrongful death and conditions of confinement cases (regarding pre-trial detainees). It is here where she recognized the importance of ensuring equal access to the civil justice system and dedicated her professional career to advocating for plaintiffs across various facets of the law.

Fancying herself an amateur writer, Mrs. Edwards has also written various blog posts, published several practice points for the America Bar Association, and drafted white papers and presentations for COPAA (Council of Parent Attorneys and Advocates) conferences.

Bruno Ortega-Toledo

Bruno Ortega-Toledo began as a paralegal with the firm, handling the day-to-day operations of the office, including talking to clients, drafting motions, and performing legal research. Mr. Ortega is now an attorney pending admission involved in all of the firm's practice areas, from wage & hour cases, consumer protection litigation, to data breach matters. He now contributes to the firm's motions practice by researching legal issues and drafting briefs.

Mr. Ortega-Toledo graduated magna cum laude from George Mason University in 2016 (B.A. with honors in Global Affairs with a Concentration in Global Governance). He graduated law school in 2023 from Antonin Scalia Law School's part-time evening program, where he was a Notes Editor of the National Security Law Journal.

Mr. Ortega's first experience in the legal field was as a Legal Assistant with Hogar Immigrant Services, a Virginia non-profit that offers ESOL classes, citizenship assistance, and immigration legal assistance to the local community. Providing paralegal services at Hogar's monthly citizenship workshops put Mr. Ortega in touch with the aspirations and struggles of the local Hispanic community and motivated him to further involve himself in the study of law.
